

My Resume

About me

Hi there~ welcome to my personal website.

My name is Fan Yuhong, I am from China.

I am currently studying computer programming at Seneca college

I really like computer science and technology related things.

I am fascinated by the idea of making my ideas into software that can actually help others.

At the same time, I also like to interact with people, so I think I'm an introvert and extrovert at the same time.

Besides I also enjoy music and sports.

If you're interested in me, please feel free to contact me!
